GOULD'S DAUGHTER HUMILIATED

Sensational Divorce Suit Now on Trial and All Disgusting Features Are Being Exposed—Woman Did Her Best to Avoid Scandal—Nobleman Not Particular in Love Affairs.

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, Oct. 31.—The Castellane divorce case was heard this afternoon before M. Henry Dille, president of the Tribunal of First Instance of the Seine. Neither Count nor the Countess was present.

Maitre Cruppi, for the Countess, pleaded for a divorce upon the documentary evidence submitted.

M. Cruppi asked that the Countess be given the custody of her three children.

Counsel for the Countess spoke for an hour and a half and had not finished when the court took a recess.
Counsel's presentation of the case of the plaintiff constituted a complete and pitiful story of the wreck of the Count's inordinate extravagance.

Only Twenty When Married.

Even in spite of their domestic in-felicity the Countess was too good and scrupulous to begin an action for divorce until she possessed full proof.
She was only 20 when she married in 1895 and, Maitre Cruppi asserted, the happiness of the honeymoon was disturbed by their arrival in Paris by the Count's demand for money.

The Countess' income was then $700,000 and the Count allowed her $80 in pin money.

The courtroom was crowded, among those being present were many members of the American colony.

Countess Not Influenced.

In an extended review, counsel declared that the Countess at the beginning of the suit was not acting under influence, but solely for the purpose of ending forever the peril of the moral desolation of her household.

He explained the marriage contract by which the regime of separation of property was established from the very beginning and stated that domestic difficulties arose over the question of money.

Ill-treatment soon followed, the Count even striking the plaintiff before the servants.

When he reached the question of the infidelity charged against the Count, Maitre Cruppi did not mention names or even initials, designating the correspondent as "Madame A."
"Madame B."

Income $700,000 a Year.
The Countess' income was then
$700,000 and the Count allowed her $80 pin money.

By 1899, the Countess' interests, M.
Cruppi said, were so heavily compromised by the Count's extravagance, that it necessitated a family meeting in New York, and the appointment of a legal trustee. But the difficulties regarding money were unceasing and in order to obtain funds the Count pawned or sold at ridiculous prices the most costly objects. When the Countess protested, the Count abused her, in the presence of servants and when she declined to attach her signature to documents he frequently

D. OF C. ANSWERS THE ATTACK MADE ON WIRZ

When Monument is Dedicated South's Position in the Matter Will be Understood.

(By Associated Press.)
AMERICUS, GA., Oct. 31.—At the annual meeting of the Georgia division, United Daughters of the Confederacy today, a report by Mrs. A. B.
Hull, of Savannah, the president, who last year started the movement to erect a monument to Major Henry Wirz, the Andersonville prison keeper, was read, in which she speaks of opposition to the plan in some section, as follows:

"There was never any object undertaken by our society that has met with such widespread interest, such loyal support and such violent antiagonism. The latter has taken the wildest form of abuse, not sparing in any way the women of Georgia division, or the South in general, and we have answered never a word, but have simply gone and proved our case and mean to establish the truth for ever, when we unveil our monument.

"A campaign of education it has very been, for I do not believe any of us knew how ignorant we were of the history of that period until we went into this matter as we have been obliged to do, in order to give an answer for the faith that was in us."

Mrs. Hull recommended that a picture of Winnie Davis be placed in the dormitory, of the Rabun-Georgia Industrial School, which is conducted by the Daughters, as a memorial to both Mrs. Jefferson Davis and the Daughters of the Confederacy.

in Louisiana.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW ORLEANS, LA., Oct. 31.— Five persons were scalded to death by a column of escaping steam from a broken boiler drum in a sugar house near Vacherie, La., yesterday.
The scene of the tragedy, the Shell Hill plantation, is remote from telegraph communication and details of the explosion reached here tonight.
The dead are:

ALEXANDER STEIN,
AUGUSTINE FALGOUT,
CHARLES OCKMAN,
STEPHEN MARTINEZ, 7 years old, and a negro.

A hole two feet square burst in the boiler drum, which stood near the sugar house. The sugar house was filled with steam and when found the three men, the little girl and the ne-for Monster Boat.

(By Associated Press.)
ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 31.—From a reliable source it is learned that the Russian Admiralty has determined to carry out its original program of reconstruction and enlargement, despite the fact that the condition of the finances of the country have compelled the curtailment of the naval appropriations of 1907 by $11,000,000.

Besides the Rurik of 18,000 tons, now building at Vickers & Maxims, at Barrow, England, and the Admiral Makharoff of 7,500 tons, building at Toulon, the new Admiralty works are engaged on the Payan and Pallada, which are well advanced. The Admiralty and private yards are engaged on the gunboats Glyak, Foreitz, Boh-ry and Sluvich, and a number of torpedo boats.

Work on the new navy will begin next year, unless the national finances absolutely forbid. The plans of the Russian imitation of Great Britain's Dreadnought, costing $10,000,000 have been completed, and the keel will be laid in the spring, according to present intention.

(By Associated Press.)
BURLINGTON, VT., Oct. 31.—Sentational charges were made today in ten indictments, which were returned by the Chittenden county grand jury, in connection with the sale of diseased cattle in the State.

According to the indictments, two former members of the State Cattle Commission, participated in the transactions with a full knowledge that such cattle would be used for food purposes.

Four of the indictments were against the Consolidated Rendering Company. Four additional indictments were against L. E. Brigham, manager of the Burlington Rendering Company. This company is controlled by the Consolidated company.

The most sensational disclosures were made in the indictments which were returned against Dr. F. A. Rich, a veterinary of this city, and Victor L. Spear, of Randolph, both of whom were former members of the State Cattle Commission.

The indictments against the Consolidated company and Brigham charge the sale of diseased meat in the State and also the shipment of such diseased meat out of the State, for the purpose of putting it on sale.

Rich and Spear are charged with selling diseased beef, which had previously been condemned to the rendering companies.

All of the defendants furnished bond for their appearance at the March term of the Chittenden County Court.

Before the grand jury reported at the morning session of the court, Judge Howell imposed a fine of $3,000 on the Consolidated Rendering Company for its failure to produce before the grand jury certain papers and memoranda, which had been demanded.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 31.— Eight of the identified participants in the robbery, October 27, of Cashier Hermann, of the custom house, according to the papers here, were condemned to be transported by steamer last night to Cronstadt for execution by a squad of soldiers.

Women have been arrested on suspicion of complicity in the crime, including one who had in her possession a large quantity of explosives, but no trace has been found of the mysterious woman, who decamped with the cash. The police are now working on the theory that she was a man in disguise.

Robbers Wanted a Million.

It is learned that the robbers first intended to attack a shipment of $1, 250,000 from the State banks. October 17, but they were forced to abandon their plan because the authorities were warned and strengthened the police on duty in all the districts traversed by the treasure, and also sent the money in installments, with double escorts, by various routes.

On account of the danger of robbery, the State bank had refused to undertake shipments of money to the provinces of Astrakhan and Saratoff and parts of the Kazan and Simbirsk.

203 Robberies Committed.
The last fortnight's record of important robberies throughout the Empire show that 203 crimes of that nature were committed and that the total booty secured in addition to the St. Petersburg robbery of last week was $152,000.

—Telephone Message States That

(By Associated Press.)

CLEVELAND, OHIO, Oct. 31.—Anna Held, the actress, has recovered that $280,000 worth of jewels which she lost in so mysterious a manner last week. The recovery was quite as mysterious as the disappearance of the jewels; even more so.

It all happened this way: Two men with a suit case got off of a Lake Shore train at Painesville, Monday night. Two other men got off, too.
The latter acted as if they were in a hurry. They said they were detectives from Toledo.

When the pair with the suit case saw the detectives they started to run. The detectives ran, too, and captured the fugitives, who had dropped the suit case.

Night Policeman J. Hennessy, of Painesville, picked up the suit case.
The detectives, their prisoners and the suit case went on the Lake Shore train. That was the last seen of the quartet and the valise in Painesville.
This evening Hennessy got a telephone message from Toledo. The man at the Toledo end of the line said:

"This is Detective Myers, of Toledo. The suit case contained the Anna Held jewels has been found. They are all recovered."

The bell rang off.

LEGAL ACTIONS IN THE CONTEST

Democratic Candidates Bring Court's Attention to the Destruction of Independence League Petitions—Im-for Gubernatorial Honors.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 31.—With election day less than a week away, the two candidates for governor of New York are making their last appeals to the up-State voters, and tomorrow will see both Charles E.
Hughes and William R. Hearst headed toward Greater New York, where the final arguments will be made.

Their last swing around the circle, has been made under adverse weather conditions and both are voice worn from frequent out-door speaking. But neither rain nor snow has dampened the enthusiasm of the crowds that gathered everywhere to greet them.

Hearst Speaks in Buffalo.

Mr. Hearst started from Rochester this morning for Niagara Falls. Snow and rain fell all along the line and his falling voice obliged him to discontinue out-door speaking. Tonight he appeared at five meetings at Buffalo and tomorrow night he will be in New York.

There were several incidents today tending to accentuate the already intense interest in the outcome of the campaign. In this city, the feature of the day was the action of Mr. Hearst in appealing direct to Judge Otto A.
Koslosky, of the court of general session, to take vigorous measures against the board of elections for their alleged criminal negligence in failure to prevent the loss or destruction of independence League nominating petitions.

Big Rewards Offered.

Mr. Hearst has offered rewards aggregating $50,000 for the arrest and conviction of persons guilty of election frauds on November 6.

As a result of yesterday's decision of the court of appeals on the question of the validity of certain nominating petitions filed by the Independence League in this city, that organization today issued a statement to the effect, "That the Independence League column will be found on the official ballot, when the voter comes to make his mark on election day."

Both Sides Confident.

Supporters of both Mr. Hughes and Mr. Hearst profess confidence in the outcome of next Tuesday's election.
William Barnes, Jr., former chairman of the executive committee of the Republican State committee, who it was said at Republican headquarters and made a careful study of reports sent by town and county organizations throughout the State estimated that Mr. Hughes will have an up-State plurality of 200,000.

The Independence League gave out a statement tonight concerning Mr.
Hearst's campaign up-State, in which it predicts his election.

Election Predictions Vary Greatly.
"Reports from up-State relative to to growing Hearst strength," says the statement, "are unusually encouraging today. The organizers, who make a weekly report to the executive committee of the League, were in the city and describe the panic of the Hughes army."

NORFOLK, Oct. 31.—"I realize that self and Mr. Hess were without foundation, and I regret that my indignation led me to publish a statement that would be apt to injure that gen-

This is the statement offered by W.
O. Saunders, who was arraigned in the police court today on the charge of criminally libelling Albert Hess, manager of the Jamestown Magazine.
Mr. Saunders published an article in his paper reflecting on Mr. Hess.
The latter went to law, with the result state above.

Captain Tazewell Taylor and Attorney Dan Coleman represented Sanderson and City Attorney James T. Duncan appeared for Hess. Upon Sanderson making the above published statement, Hess, upon advice of his counsel, withdrew the warrant, the costs being paid by Saunders.
